Mayfest Announces National Act and Performing Artist Lineup

Tulsa, OK., March 29, 2010 – Tulsa International Mayfest is pleased to announce that Cherry Poppin' Daddies will be the national headline act, scheduled to play on the main stage on the Williams Green at 9:30p.m. on Saturday, May 15th. The concert will be free and open to the public.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies celebrated their 20th anniversary in 2009 with the honor of an induction into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame. The Daddies brand of high-energy swing music has had, for years, the unique ability to bring generations together. It's the only band around where high school aged Psychobilly scenesters and their grandparents can come together dancing in the same audience. As a result, the Daddies have an impressive range of popularity that makes them a hit with colleges, festivals, casinos and fairs. Onstage, the Daddies have enough of an edge to not come off as bland or plastic and more than enough chops, class and style to satisfy any orthodox jazz fanatic.

"I'd like to thank Angie DeVore-Green and Tom Green, Owners of Dfest and Enso Bar/Lounge, for their assistance in booking the Cherry Poppin' Daddies," said Heather Pingry, Mayfest Executive Director. "I know they're going to be a great fit for Mayfest and audiences of all ages will enjoy the show! I'd also like to thank Eric and Sarah Gomez for booking our local and regional bands. We've got a great lineup this year and will feature over seventy-five acts on three outdoor stages."
